

CLERIC DOMAIN OF BEAUTY

Clerics of Beauty devote themselves to that which is beautiful. They believe aesthetic brilliance improves the world and seek to enhance and honor it in the world around it. Fittingly, Clerics of Beauty are generally both quite hygienic and neatly groomed, with an appearance that is generally also magically enhanced. A church of a god of beauty will attract many followers due to the art projects they create. In addition to artists and art-appreciators, churches of gods of beauty are also popular with psionics.

ASTOUNDING BEAUTY

At level 1, your beauty increases drastically. Whenever you use the Help action to help a creature make a Charisma check, that creature adds your Wisdom modifier (minimum of 1) to the roll.

You may also use the Help action in this way as a reaction.

BONUS PROFICIENCIES

You gain proficiency with two of the following at level 1: calligrapher's supplies, glassblower's tools, jeweler's tools, painter's supplies, or weaver's tools.

CHANNEL DIVINITY: WARD OF APPEAL

Beginning when you reach level 2, as an action, you may use your Channel Divinity to provide a Ward of Appeal for a number of creatures equal to twice your Wisdom modifier (minimum of 2). For the next minute, while you remain conscious, the first time a creature damages a creature protected by the ward each turn, the damager makes an Intelligence saving throw against your spell save DC. On a failed save, that creature takes psychic damage equal to your Cleric level.

ENTICING GRACE

At 6th level, your grace begins to steel the will of those around you. Any creature within 15 feet of you has advantage on saving throws against effects that would cause that creature to become charmed or frightened.

POTENT SPELLCASTING

Starting at 8th level, you add your Wisdom modifier to the damage you deal with any cleric cantrip.

GOLDY RADIANCE

By level 17, you radiate unimaginable beauty. As a reaction to an ally within 60 feet of you failing a Charisma check or save, you may make them pass it. You may only use this ability a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus between long rests.
